MAINSTAGE SERIES

John McCutcheon - Saturday, Nov. 21, 7 p.m.

John McCutcheon has emerged as one of our most respected and loved folksingers. As an instrumentalist, he is a master of a dozen different traditional instruments, most notably the rare and beautiful hammer dulcimer.

Lightwire Theater: A Very Electric Christmas - Friday, Nov. 26, 7 p.m.

Toy soldiers, classic carols and a universe of beautiful lights come together in this charming new yuletide story! Lightwire Theater sets your holidays aglow with the tale of a lost bird spending Christmas at the North Pole.

The Choir of Man - Saturday, Feb. 5, 8 p.m.

A multi-talented cast of nine handsome guys combines hair-raising harmonies, foot-stomping singalongs, world-class tap dance and poetic meditations on the power of community in this riotously enjoyable homage to that gathering place we've all missed so much over the last year: your local pub. With a real working bar on stage, come ready to drink in the action. Cheers!

Cirque FLIP Fabrique 6° - Monday, Feb. 7, 7 p.m.

On the stage, six envelopes contain six mysterious invitations for six strangers. The guests have arrived, but one is missing. What to do while we wait? When renowned performer Jamie Adkins and his friends drop by, get ready for a wild ride! FLIP Fabrique's ingenious brand of acrobatic physical comedy makes everyday situations a celebration of the extraordinary.

Nobuntu - Sunday, Feb. 13, 3 p.m.

Nobuntu, the female a cappella quintet from Zimbabwe, has drawn international acclaim, for its inventive performances that range from traditional Zimbabwean songs to Afro Jazz to Gospel. The ensemble's concerts are performed with pure voices, augmented by minimalistic percussion, traditional instruments such as the Mbira (thumb piano) and organic, authentic dance movements.

Robert Cray - Saturday, March 12, 8 p.m.

Robert Cray Band has been bridging the lines between blues, soul and R&B for the past four decades, with five Grammy wins, over 20 acclaimed albums, and many great achievements such as being inducted to the Blues Hall of Fame and receiving the Americana Music Lifetime Achievement Award for Performance.

Anne of Green Gables – The Ballet®* - Saturday, Apr. 16, 7 p.m.

Canada's Ballet Jørgen presents Anne of Green Gables – The Ballet®. A playful, colorful and evocative production based on the beloved Canadian novel by Lucy Maud Montgomery, the ballet follows the adventures of Anne Shirley, an orphaned girl sent to live on a farm in the fictional town of Avonlea, Prince Edward Island.

"Weird Al" Yankovic - Saturday, Apr. 30, 8 p.m.

With Special Guest EMO PHILIPS. "Weird Al" is pressing his luck with The Unfortunate Return of the Ridiculously Self-Indulgent, Ill-Advised Vanity Tour. He is leaving behind the high-octane theatrics that he's known for and going bare-bones – no costumes, no props, no video screens... just Al and his band of almost four decades in smaller, more intimate venues, hanging out on stage, playing music.

CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES

Ying Quartet - Sunday, Oct. 17, 3 p.m.

The Ying Quartet occupies a position of unique prominence in the classical music world, combining brilliantly communicative performances with a fearlessly imaginative view of chamber music in today's world.

Rolston String Quartet - Sunday, Dec. 19, 4 p.m.

The acclaimed Rolston String Quartet was formed in the summer of 2013 in Alberta, Canada, at the Banff Centre for Arts and Creativity's Chamber Music Residency. It takes its name from Canadian violinist Thomas Rolston, founder and longtime director of the Music and Sound Programs at the Banff Centre.

Miró Quartet with David Shifrin - Sunday, Mar. 27, 3 p.m.

Formed in 1995, the Miró Quartet is consistently praised for their deeply musical interpretations, exciting performances, and thoughtful programming. Just wait until they team up with world-class clarinetist David Shifrin!

Stile Antico - Sunday, Apr. 24, 3 p.m. – St. John's Episcopal Church in Bangor

One of the world's most accomplished and innovative vocal ensembles, its 12 members have thrilled audiences with their performances of Renaissance polyphony.
